

Headquarters, Department of the Army

---

---

Addison D. Davis, IV Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army

---

---

Mr. Tad Davis

Serves as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Environment, Safety and Occupational Health.

He provides executive leadership for all Army environment, safety and occupational health programs including Army National Guard and Reserve activities.

Mr. Davis works with key personnel in the Army, the Department of Defense (DoD), other Federal and state agencies and a host of non-governmental organizations in developing and advocating Army policies for environment, safety and occupational health programs.

His responsibilities span a global organization that includes an annual environmental program of over $1 billion and oversight of the safety and occupational health policy for over 1.2 million Soldiers and Army civilian employees worldwide.

Previous Key Assignments:

- Assistant Deputy Director (Demand Reduction), White House Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP), Washington, DC
- Deputy Chief, Joint Operations, J3, The Joint Staff, The Pentagon
- Garrison Commander, Fort Bragg, NC
- Assistant Professor, George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies

Education:

- United States Military Academy, West Point, NY, BS Engineering
- John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, MPA, Public Administration
- Hoover Institution, Stanford University, Hoover Fellow

Awards:

- Defense Superior Service Medal
- Legion of Merit
- North Carolina Order of the Long Leaf Pine
- The Nature Conservancy's Environmental Leadership Award
- U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Administrator's Award
- Sandhills Conservation Partnership Leadership Award
- Distinguished Member, 15th Infantry Regiment